

Toll-free hotline for reporting drug houses.

The government's Safer Communities and Neighbourhoods 1-855-933-6411 hotline to report suspected drug houses is proving to be very effective. Calls are investigated by retired police officers, and dozens of drug houses have already been shut down in Saskatchewan. However, this service is not widely known and greater promotion is required.